The MNA represents the best interests of our neighborhood in matters with City Hall, Monroe County and the State of New York. Our goal is to plan for our community as a diverse and vibrant neighborhood, celebrate the strengths and creativity of all residents; encourage home ownership and maintain the residential character of the neighborhood.

Celebrate the 26th Maplewood Rose Festival! “We’re Going Back to Our Roots”

Strong neighborhoods mean strong businesses. Please help us maintain and strengthen Maplewood with a business sponsorship to support this year’s festival. This year the celebration may only be one day - But there will be lots of festival goers strolling through the garden - Please consider a sponsorship.
